

ISHS 2020 Elections of Directors and Advisers

The COVID-19 pandemic has delayed or forced the cancellation of many activities across the state and nation, including the election of ISHS directors and advisers, usually conducted at our annual meeting in April. Because we don't know how the pandemic will affect our ability to gather collectively in the coming months, the ISHS board has decided to conduct the election while we are social distancing.

We ask that you look over the ballot below and vote for the new directors and advisers, each of whom has volunteered to serve a term of one year (advisers) or three years (directors), beginning in September. We have five openings for directors, and eight openings for advisers.

Nominees for ISHS Directors are:

- Brian Mullgardt, Decatur. Brian teaches history and Millikin University and now serves on the ISHS Symposium Committee.
- Debra M. Dudek, Bolinbrook. Debra is an author, genealogist, and Head of Adult and Teen Services, Fountaindale Public Library District.
- Cathy Popovitch, Springfield. Cathy is employed at the Illinois State Archives.
- Richard Lindberg, Chicago. Richard is a historian and tour guide.
- William Shannon, IV, Belleville. Will is the Curator of the St. Clair County Historical Society in Belleville.

I approved the above slate of nominated directors to the ISHS Board, term expiring in 2023. If you do not approve of the entire slate, please check boxes of those that have your vote.

Nominees for ISHS Advisers:

- Tom Kovilcic, Decatur
- Elaine Egdorf, Homewood
- Christian McWhirter, Springfield
- Mark Pohlrad, Evanston
- Tim Draper, Sugar Grove
- Aaron Lisec, Carbondale
- Nathan Pierce, Decatur
- Mark Flotow, Springfield

I approved the above slate of nominated advisers to the ISHS Board, term expiring in 2021. If you do not approve of the entire slate, please check boxes of those that have your vote.

All nominees have been vetted by the ISHS Nominating Committee and are eligible to serve.

Please mail, fax, or email your completed ballot to the ISHS office by August 1, 2020.
