

Web Site Ad Hoc Committee Report

At this time there are no major issues to report regarding the ISHS web page.

Attached to this report you will find usage statistics for the period March 1–July 15, 2022. The reports show

- number of views of our most popular pages,
- number of new versus returning visitors,
- location of users by country,
- location of users by city,
- languages used, and
- which browsers were used to access our web site.

These reports were generated by Google Analytics

Please remember the ISHS Store section is open for business and if you haven't already done so, check it out. In addition to books, there are past issues of the Journal and Illinois Heritage along with art work, stationary, and the ISHS Holiday Ornament available for purchase. ISHS members will receive a 20% discount on all items by using the coupon code ISHS2022. All proceeds from these sales will be used to support the ISHS.

A gentle reminder to all, if you are an online shopper, please consider using Amazon Smile. Amazon will donate 0.5% of your purchase to the ISHS. Just go to Amazon Smile (<https://smile.amazon.com/>) and select the Illinois State Historical Society as the charity you wish to support. Ask your family and friends to help support the ISHS by shopping on Amazon Smile. Every little bit helps.

If you have an Event or a News item from your locality, please submit it for posting on our Calendar of Events or Latest News section. Posting is usually done within 24 hours. The best way to submit an item is to use the Submission form on the web site's Calendar page at <https://www.historyillinois.org/Calendar.aspx>.

In addition to Jenni Dahl, Jeff Dunn is now part of the web site team.

As always, should any member find errors that need to be corrected or have any concerns or suggestions pertaining to the web site, please inform the ISHS staff.

Respectfully submitted,
Elaine Shemoney Evans
